ALIEN LABOR INTO ALBUQUERQUE

SOMEBODY MAY BE PINCHED FOR VIOLATING THE LAW

Immigration Officials Stop Party of Carpenters From Monterey En Route Here.

The United States immigration in-spectors are making a determined ef-fort to discover the men who have been violating the alien labor law by shipping native laborers from the in-terior of Old Mexico to Albuquerque. It is said that sensational disclosures may follow the result of the investiga-tion, and there may be trouble for persons in New Merica and in Monte-rey in the southern republic.

rey in the southern republic.

The business is understood to have been going on for some time past, but but the crisis came when seven men with their families from Monterey, Mexico, were caught at El Puso yesterday. The men were carpenters, each equipped with through transportation from Monterey to Albuquerque. They admitted that they had been hired to come to this city for employment. Several days ago the party came to Juarez over the Mexican Cens. came to Juarez over the Mexican Cen-tral, but were not allowed to cross into El Paso. Two days later the got across the river in some manner and were discovered by the immigration officials, comfortably esconced in a Santa Fe train, ready to proceed to the Duke City. They were immediately taken back to Juarez by the inspectors.

A board of inquiry composed of immigration officials held a session in the Pass city yesterday and it is claim-ed that they have sufficient evidence to prosecute the guilty parties.
